

Tripoli Evangelical School

Class: Grade 10 IP

Cycle: 3rd

Subject: Psychology/ 2 periods

Textbook: Psychology, Principles in Practice, Holt McDougal, edition 2010, Chapters: 1+2+3+9

Syllabus name	Standard Description	Standard Name	Standard Code	Description
What is psychology?	Why study psychology, What psychologists do, A history of psychology, Contemporary perspectives	Introduction History	Chapter 1	Understand the study of psychology Differentiate the different major fields and applied fields Roots of psychology The different schools of psychology
Psychological Methods	Conducting research Surveys, samples and populations Using observation for research Experimental and ethical issues	Research Experiments	Chapter 2	The five basic steps of a scientific research Surveys and study groups Testing methods Experiments Ethical practices
Biology and Behavior	The nervous system The brain: our control center The endocrine system Heredity and our genetic		Chapter 3	The Neuron The central nervous system The peripheral nervous system The three major parts of the brain The different major glands The influence of heredity

	background			and the environment
Intelligence		What is intelligence? Measurement of intelligence Difference in intelligence What influences intelligence?	Chapter 9	Human intelligence Intelligence tests Intelligence on a continuum Genetic makeup The environment